_____	)

This matter comes before the South Carolina Department of Insurance (the Department), upon application of David E. Belton, Esquire, Senior Associate General Counsel for the Department, requesting the revocation of Theresa Jenkins-Jackson's ("Adjuster") resident adjuster's license.

After careful review of the evidence presented the Department issues the following decision.

FINDINGS OF FACT

Adjuster is currently a South Carolina resident adjuster.

In the State of South Carolina at the United States District Court, District of South Carolina on December 15, 2004 the adjuster was charged and convicted of, "Conspiracy to Commit Insurance Fraud and Embezzlement".

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Pursuant to S.C. Code §38-43-130(A), "the Director or his designee may place on probation, revoke, or suspend an adjuster's license after ten days' notice when it appears that an adjuster has been convicted of a crime involving moral turpitude." Thus Theresa Jenkins-Jackson has been convicted of "Conspiracy to Commit Insurance Fraud and Embezzlement" in the United States District Court, District of South Carolina on December 15, 2004, the Department now moves to revoke her adjuster's license.

THEREFORE, it is ordered that Theresa Jenkins-Jackson South Carolina resident adjuster license shall be revoked thirty (30) days from the date of this order, and no license issued through the state of South Carolina Department of Insurance is to be issued to her, unless Theresa Jenkins-Jackson requests in writing within said thirty (30) day period a public hearing before the South Carolina Administrative Law Court.

It is FURTHER ORDERED that the National Association of Insurance Commissioners be immediately notified of this order.

This South Carolina Department of Insurance administrative disciplinary order is a public record subject to the disclosure requirements of the State of South Carolina's freedom of Information Act, S.C. Code Ann. §§30-4-10, et seq. (1991 and Supp. 2000). Nothing contained within this administrative disciplinary order should be construed to limit or to deprive any person of any private right of action under the law. Nothing contained within this administrative disciplinary order should be construed to limit, in any manner, the criminal jurisdiction of any law enforcement or judicial officer. Nothing contained within this administrative disciplinary order should be construed to limit the statutory duty of the Director of Insurance, exercised either directly or through the Department of Insurance, to "report to the Attorney General or other appropriate law enforcement officials criminal violations of the law relative to the business of insurance or the provisions of this title which he considers necessary to report." S.C. Code Ann. §38-3-110(3) (Supp. 2000).
